Request to Register Surviving Securityholder(s)

 This form is only applicable to Issuer and Certificated securityholdings. If the securityholding is CHESSE sponsored you must contact the sponsoring broker to make this declaration.

This form authorises surviving Securityholders to be correctly listed as the legal owner(s) of the securities. For each company in which the deceased has a joint securityholding a separate form must be submitted.

Step 1: Details of securityholding

Issuer sponsored securityholdings

Please provide the following details (this information can be found on the latest securityholding statement):

- The company name in which the securities are held (you can provide the name or ASX code).
- The Securityholder reference number (SRN) (this will be a 10 digit number starting with an I).
- The full name of registered Securityholder(s).
- The address details as they appear on the register.

Certificated securityholdings

Please provide the following details (this information can be found on the original share certificate):

- The certificate number:
  - This will be a 10 digit number starting with C OR
  - The number indicated on the original certificate.
- The company name in which the securities are held (you can provide the name or ASX code).
- The full name of registered Securityholder(s).
- The address details as they appear on the register.

NB: Please also enclose the original certificate(s) with the form. If you are unable to locate the certificate, please contact Computershare.

Step 2: Details of surviving Securityholder(s)

Provide name(s) of the surviving Securityholder(s) as they currently appear on the register. If you wish to register a new address for all future correspondence please enter in the appropriate field over the page.

Step 3: Details of the deceased

Enter the name of the deceased Securityholder where shown. If you have not already supplied a certified copy of the death certificate then one should accompany this form. Details on how to certify a document are shown below. Note that a medical certificate as to cause of death is not acceptable.

Step 4: Signing instructions

All surviving Securityholders must sign in the spaces provided.

Company Signing Requirements:

Where the surviving Securityholder(s) is a company, either two directors OR a director and company secretary OR a sole director and company secretary OR a sole director (if no company secretary exists) must sign (in accordance with the Corporations Act).

Overseas Company Signing Requirements:

Companies incorporated outside Australia must sign as above, or provide documentation showing that the company can sign in an alternate manner.

Write the name of a contact person and telephone number. These details will only be used if we have a query regarding this form. DO NOT forget to date the form.

Step 5: Returning your form

The original 'Request to Register Surviving Securityholder(s)' form must be returned to Computershare. We cannot accept a copy, fax or email, so return it by post to the address above.

Turn over to complete the form →

Checklist

- This form, completed, signed by all surviving Securityholders and dated.
- A certified copy of the Death Certificate or Probate/Letters of Administration (if not already provided).
- 'Confirmation of the Deceased's Name' form (required where the name on the legal documentation does not fully correspond to the name on the register).

How to certify a document

1. The document must be certified by someone who has permission to do so under State law such as Justice of the Peace, Chartered Accountant, etc.
2. The certifying officer's name, position and contact number must be clearly stated on the document.
3. All pages of the document must be certified.
4. The certification must contain a statement to the effect that it is a 'true and correct copy' of the original.
5. The stamp and/or statement and signature of the authorised person must be original. No photocopies or faxes of the certification are acceptable.

For more information on certifying documents and examples of persons authorised to certify documents, go to www.investorcentre.com/contact.
